

BROADWAY SCHOOL

CONTRACT LET AND CONSTRUCTION OF NEW BUILDING COMMENCES SOON

Bids for the construction of the Broadway School buildings were advertised for twice before the contract was let, as only one bid was submitted the first time. Only three bids were submitted the last time. The Edwards, Wilkey & Dixon Company were the successful bidders and the contract is for $78,634, with two possible deductions—$12,000 if auditorium is omitted or $4500 if auditorium is left unfinished. The highest bid was for $106,662. The building is to contain 8 class rooms, sloyd department and (probably) an auditorium. The specifications call for concrete foundation, hollow tile walls with plastered exterior, composition roofing, pine trim, pine floors, gas heating. Construction will begin before many days, as soon as the center part of the old building is torn away and the east wing moved back. The west wing will stand as it is until school closes, as it is west of the line where new construction will begin.

The three bids for constructing additions to the Intermediate School building, ranging from $17,598 to $24,775, were all rejected.

UNUSUAL SPEEDING CASE

Judge Lowe reports that he was summoned to his office in the City Hall this morning to hear an unusual case. A young lady school teacher of Los Angeles was hurrying to her school in Pasadena last Thursday morning and reached a speed of 37 miles an hour on East Colorado, crossing both Adams Street and Verdugo Road at that rate. Her father, her lawyer and Councilman P. A. Conaway of Los Angeles were with her this morning to plead for her discharge, but Judge Lowe held that imperiling human life by traversing important thoroughfares and street crossings was not justified by any excuse, so he imposed a fine.

SATAN'S DEVICES

ELDER CHRISTIAN CONDEMNS OUIJA BOARD AND KIDNAPED EVILS

That the innocent-looking ouija board is a most dangerous toy, and that the supposedly harmless pastime of obtaining messages through spirit writing is but a means of luring the victim into the dark labyrinth of spiritualism, was the assertion of Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists, who spoke in the Glendale Adventist church, at California and Isabel streets, at the regular service last Saturday morning.

"March 31, 1848, is usually given as the birthday of modern spiritualism," said Mr. Christian, "but it is very much older than that. So far as mankind's experience with it is concerned, it was not born at Hydesville, N. Y., but in the garden of Eden, when Satan told Eve 'ye shall not surely die.' But it was given new life in 1848, and in 1885 it claimed five million adherents. Today the assertion is made that not less than one-third of earth's hun-

GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. HENRY S. WEST CELEBRATE FIFTY HAPPY YEARS

All the world loves a lover and all the world agrees that a wedding when it unites two sincerely loving hearts "for better or worse" is the most beautiful ceremony in the world. But there is a more beautiful sight—the golden wedding which demonstrates the fidelity with which they have kept their vows and the sincerity of their affection. Such a spectacle gladdened the eyes of the fortunate group of friends who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw at 212 West Park avenue Saturday afternoon to tender their congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. West. Very sweet and bride-like gentle little Mrs. West looked in her pretty white gown and shoes, clasping a big shower bouquet of jonquils, her form slender as a girl, her cheeks pink with the flush of pleasure and excitement. Attentive as he was fifty years ago and more tender, scarce willing she should be absent from his sight a moment was her spouse, the frailties of age forgotten as he assumed the martial bearing of the young soldier who married her 50 years ago.

The Shaw home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Acacia bloom was entwined in the balustrades of the broad staircase which the wedding party descended. It formed a canopy above the marriage throne arranged for the celebrants with Old Glory for a background. California poppies glorified the scene with their splendor. There was informal visiting and the usual exchange of gossip about bride and groom, while visitors awaited the expected ceremony. Then, about three o'clock, Mrs. Bennett took her place at the piano and began the familiar

VERDUGO CANYON IMPROVEMENTS

A. W. Canfield is about to begin quite extensive building operations in Verdugo Canyon on five acres which he owns there. He will erect quite a large house, a garage to house three automobiles, chicken houses, goat stables, etc. About $12,000 will be invested in this way. J. J. Burke of South Maryland Avenue, who built a home for him in Palo Alto in 1914, will do the work. Mr. Canfield is an elderly man of means who thoroughly enjoys construction of this sort and who says that in every house he builds he corrects some defect in the previous structure. A few years ago he built quite a handsome home in Verdugo Canyon which he sold, but he loved the situation and so has come back to build another.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

SPECIAL HONOR PAID TO THE MEMORY OF "FATHER OF OUR COUNTRY"

Sunday evening at the Presbyterian Church was given to a special program of patriotic and sacred music readings and a sermon on "The Sterling Quality of Washington's Religion." Those who had a part in the musical program were: Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts, Miss Anna May Galloway, Miss Hazel Linkova, Mrs. Arnold Des Plantes, Messrs. William Marple, C. Clifford Riggs, Lawrence Chandler and Allen McDaniel. Mrs. Zetta Gibbons gave as a reading "The American Flag." The entire program was delightful, inspiring and unique, and greatly enjoyed by a large audience.

Some brief extracts from Rev. Edmonds' sermon follow. Text, Prov. 13:22:

"It seems right and proper that we should recount the characteristics of this great man, George Washington. We often see the famous picture of Washington at Valley Forge, and in connection with it we find the words, 'It was the greatness of his faith.' The world is suffering for nothing so much as for the need of faith. I am of the opinion that this nation has failed to recognize the great outstanding Christian character of George Washington. Again, he was never ashamed of his mother—the safest and best apron strings to be tied to. When he went into the Presidential chair he started right. He declared his faith in the overruling providence of God as he took the oath of office. His last words were, 'It is well.' He was a great statesman of the highest and noblest type, but his greatest greatness was his faith in the God of heaven. George Washington be-

Martial law has been declared, the messages said, and 20,000 French, British and Italian troops made "an extensive military demonstration." The Turks resisted and fighting followed, the messages added. No details of casualties were given.

PARIS, March 8.—British and Italian reinforcements en route to Constantinople will swell the allied forces in Turkey to 50,000, the newspaper Le Matin said today.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Forty-three thousand Turkish troops are now under arms in the Orient. Over 20,000 French British and Italian soldiers have clashed with the Sultan's men according to information which has reached here. This is the strength of the Turkish regular army which is said to be concentrated in Constantinople and Anatolia. No official word of reported fighting in Constantinople has reached here but military men have been expecting advices.

RAILROAD WORKERS' WAGE CONTROVERSY

REPRESENTATIVES OF UNIONS AND WORKERS GATHER FOR ARBITRATION MEETING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Arbitration of the railroad wage controversy under the terms of the Esch-Cumming bill, will start Wednesday it was announced today. Representatives of the railroads and two million union workers will meet here. The findings and recommendations of this joint commission must be ratified by the labor board established by the railroad law. Suggestions for appointments to the board are being prepared by representatives of the unions and the railroads.

VILLA ON WARPATH IN CHIHUAHUA

CAPTURES TRAIN, HOLDS JOSEPH WILLIAMS FOR RANSOM, KILLS SEVERAL PASSENGERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Francisco Villa is on war path in Chihuahua, according to official dispatches received today. On March 4 he captured a train near Chihuahua City, kidnapped Joseph Williams, an American engineer and made threatening speeches, according to State Department dispatches received today. Williams is being held for ransom. The attack on the train was made by a force of 150 armed men under the personal direction of Villa, according to information given out by the State Department. A number of people on the train were killed by the bandits although there are no reports of injury to Americans.

R. W. Black, an American salesman and Robert Peltier, another American, were robbed. The train was burned. Black turned in a detailed account of the affair to the American Consul, James B. Stewart, at Chihuahua.

DECLINE IN SUGAR PRICES

WESTERN SUGAR REFINERY ANNOUNCES DROP OF ONE CENT PER POUND ON ALL GRADES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—The Western Sugar Refinery has announced a decline of one cent per pound on all grades of sugar, effective today.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION

ITS VALIDITY TO BE FOUGHT OUT BEFORE U. S. SUPREME COURT TODAY IN WASHINGTON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The validity of the constitutional prohibition amendment will be fought out in a legal battle of attorneys for the federal government, the "dry" states, the "wet" states and liquor interests in the United States Supreme Court today. A decision is not expected until April or later.

One of the greatest attacks ever made on any statute or part of the constitution has been directed against the law by the "wet" forces. It has drawn a vigorous defense of prohibition from the federal government and dry organizations. The issue today rests on whether prohibition is a valid subject for an amendment to the constitution and whether the Volstead law enforcing the amendment is constitutional.

The attack has been launched from probably twenty-five different angles against the two forces of prohibition which have developed into a regular battle between the various states and the federal government. The issue is declared to be in reality "state rights" and there is a striking similarity to the historic question of Civil war days.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OBLIGED TO ABANDON INTERMEDIATE ADDITION

When bids were opened following the second advertisement for bids for the building of the Broadway school and construction of an addition to the Intermediate, the lowest of the five bids submitted was found to be from the Edwards & Wilkey Company, which has established an office on North Brand Boulevard. It was for $78,634. The highest bid was $106,000. The contract was accordingly let by the Board of Trustees to the Edwards & Wilkey Company. The bond issue for this improvement, based on estimates made shortly before the election took place last July, was $65,000. The advance in the cost of labor and material are strikingly illustrated in the bids submitted for this school building and for the projected Intermediate addition.

Ten thousand dollars had been provided for the Intermediate improvement. The lowest bid submitted was $17,500. Under these circumstances the trustees have been obliged to abandon the addition.

It is possible the voters of the district will be asked to consider another small bond issue to meet the deficit between the funds available and the present cost of the projected addition. If not the trustees may consider the advisability of temporary buildings of a bungalow character to provide the three sorely needed class rooms, the cost of which will be included in the budget for the coming year instead of another bond election. The objection to the plan is the inconvenience to students in passing to these buildings from the main building in bad weather for classes which are called every forty minutes. How-

DAVIS-ANNABLE

A simple but pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Rev. E. H. Willisford, the officiating clergyman, at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, March 6, 1920, when Charles Davis of Los Angeles and Mrs. Sarah R. Annable were united. The hostess, Mrs. Willisford, had provided a festive setting for the ceremony by floral decorations of lilies and sweet peas. The bride, who was prettily gowned in gray satin and who carried pink roses, was attended by her daughter, Miss Flora Annable, and by Miss Anna Anderson, who has been a member of her family and like a daughter to her. They have been living in Glendale for some time. Following the ceremony the wedding party left for Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Davis expect to make their home in Glendale.

FUNERAL OF A. H. BALLARD

The coroner held an inquest over the body of Arthur H. Ballard at Pulliam & Kiefer's Undertaking establishment Saturday afternoon. The verdict was that death was caused by thrombosis (clogging) of the coronary artery. Funeral services are being held this afternoon at the Little Church of the Flowers, Rev. E. E. Ford officiating. Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts will sing. Interment is to be in Forest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

WALLER'S BUY NEW HOME

S. H. Waller and wife, who have lived for several years in the house they built at 518 Oak street, last week bought the very attractive 8-room bungalow at 347 W. Broadway, recently completed by W. S. Caldwell. The latter moved into it with his family a little over a month ago, but will vacate it for the new owners the last of this week and occupy a house next door east which he is completing.

MANY SPEEDSTERS ARRESTED

Eighteen traffic law violators were cited to appear before Judge Lowe this forenoon. The most flagrant case, the Judge says, was that of a boy of 19 who went down Brand Boulevard at 47 miles an hour with muffler wide open. Officer Trautwein pursued him in his own auto and had to speed up to 50 miles an hour to catch him.

TIRES STOLEN

An officer patrolling the business district east of Glendale Avenue Saturday night found a rear window of the Stansbury Motor Company garage had been pried open. Two tires, 30x3½, were missing. The rear door and window, the room just west of this, were open also, but nothing was missing.

LARKINS' BACK HOME

AFTER YEAR'S TRIAL OF NEW YORK DECIDE GLENDALE IS PLACE TO LIVE

Geo. Larkin and wife, who sold their home, furniture, auto and fine aviary at 118 West Chestnut a year ago and went to New York to stay, have reconsidered and are back in Glendale to buy a residence and settle down for good. Both are moving picture actors and worked at the Astor studios when here before, but in New York Mr. Larkin had his own company and filmed a serial of 15 episodes. He thinks of following the same plan here from now on. Mr. Larkin said he had thought to locate in Hollywood this time but he and his wife were so cordially greeted by old friends in Glendale and the city looked so beautiful to them that both quickly decided that here was where they wanted to live. So now they are looking for a suitable place to buy. Mr. Larkin said their experience in New York during February, when the city was almost entombed in snow and ice for many days and all traffic paralyzed, were enough to determine them to seek a summer climate.

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Johnston, 421 Salem St., by their daughter, Miss Viola, Saturday night, in honor of the birthday of Hugh Freeman. The house was beautifully decorated in red and white, with the lights in subdued colors in harmony with the color scheme. The room, especially arranged for the refreshments, was so decorated as to give the effect of a canopy. Covers were laid for the eight invited guests and the hostess. The guest of honor was seated at the head of the table and to him fell the honor of cutting the birthday cake, in which task he proved very efficient. The invited guests were: Misses Nellie Rowe, Dorothy and Marjorie Howard and Faith Talling, Hugh and Wade Freeman, Dale Wood and Frank Moody.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Mrs. Mary C. Ord was the victim of a serious accident one day last week. While boarding a P. E. car at Los Feliz Road it started too soon and she was thrown, fracturing her hip. She has been taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles, and it is probable she will have to be placed in a plaster cast and kept there for some time. Mrs. Mulligan, a relative from San Antonio, Texas, has come to Glendale to be with Miss Ryan, niece of Mrs. Ord, and look after the welfare of the injured woman who, they hope, can be brought home in about two weeks. She is an elderly woman, a member of the Holy Family Catholic Church and has a large circle of friends here.

LE GRAND, IOWA, PICNIC

A Le Grand, Ia., reunion will take place Saturday, March 13, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Former residents or tourists of Le Grand are urged to attend the basket picnic at one o'clock and the program following.

THREE BIG THINGS

SACRIFICE, NEIGHBORLINESS, POWER, THE LARGE TRUTHS OF THE GOSPEL

At the First Methodist church yesterday Dr. C. M. Crist spoke to large audiences. In the morning the sermon was on "Wells Reopened By Each New Generation." This was a portrayal of experiences common to our humanity and was well received. Sunday night the preacher's theme was "Some Capitals of Christianity, or Three Big Things of the Kingdom." Dr. Crist said in part:

"Jesus was God letting man see His face, listen to His voice and feel the power of His presence. He was God spelling Himself out in the language man could understand. Once man knew God 'close up.' In Eden there was a perfect fellowship between man and God. But one day man went away from God. He left home and went into the far country of sin. He went so far away that he forgot his mother tongue and could not speak to God.

"Jesus came to teach man again the language of heaven, and so He is himself, spoken of as 'the Word,' the means of communication. In His life He spelled out the big truths of the Gospel. The first word was Sac-

FIRST PRINCIPLES OF LEADERSHIP

In the autobiography of a man who won distinction as a leader of men is an anecdote that tells how he first recognized and put into practice the principle of leadership.

He was the youngest of a number of boys who used to gather and roost upon a fence while they talked over their plans. After a time he discovered that whenever a boy got down from the fence with an air of decision and said, "Come on, fellows," the others invariably followed. He determined to make an experiment. One day, when he and his friends were assembled and sitting on the fence as usual, he slipped down and said, "Come on fellows," and without any dissent the others followed.

The first principle of leadership, as that boy discovered, is to overcome your own natural inertia, and not wait for someone else to drive you out of it.

The man who successfully and consistently overcomes his own inertia is usually able to rouse other people out of theirs.

A leader may be bad, or unscrupulous, or dishonest, but he cannot be lazy and remain a leader.

However, mere readiness to lead, although it may create a following, will not hold it. Audacity, assertiveness, and the ability to overcome inertia must be supplemented with a clear purpose and an ability to bring it before people cogently and persuasively.

Sheer personal magnetism can sometimes inspire a blind faith and compel obedience, but leadership that depends on personal magnetism will land its followers in a quagmire or on a bog.

THE SCHOOL OF POLITICS

In many parts of the country today, at least in those states where equal suffrage has become the practice, women are studying political problems and principles. They are preparing to cast their votes for presidential candidates in November, and they desire to be informed upon the issues. To this end the women's clubs of every town are holding weekly meetings, morning, afternoon and evening, and prominent leaders in the suffrage forces are instructing the laity in their new privilege, and exhorting them to accept to the full their new duties.

All of which is as it should be, and very good indeed, so far as it goes. And yet, surely, if there is one place where experience should be the teacher it is in politics. If there is one subject which should be learned at the feet of those who have been its masters that subject is the science of government.

Politics and government have been the domain, almost the exclusive domain, of men for centuries. The thoughtful man, mindful of the short-comings of his sex, the inefficiency of governments and the scandal of practical politics, will not be boastful about this exclusive domination. He will, indeed, be only too glad that the women are coming in to lend a hand. At least, if failure still follows their united efforts, man will not have anybody to apologize to for the rottenness of politics.

But since experience is the only competent teacher in these branches, why do not the women call upon the men, who know, for their instruction? We can always learn something even from those who have failed, because to the wise man—or woman—failure is the stepping stone to success.—Long Beach Telegram.

THOSE STRIKE RUMORS

Recent reports had it that the Amalgamated Textile Workers of America had demanded a 44-hour week and a fifty per cent wage increase. The Amalgamated is the most important of the New England mill workers' unions, and that its members should have taken such radical action created some consternation. The threatened strike, however, did not materialize, and it later developed that the demands were formulated at a meeting of a handful of radicals presided over by a self-appointed leader. The experience of the Amalgamated is but a repetition on a smaller scale of the history of the steel strike. A few leaders determined upon a strike and forthwith organized the radical elements in the steel industry for that purpose. The better class of workers refused to aid in the strike, and it soon failed.

The same conditions exist in the ranks of union labor throughout the country. Everywhere is found a radical and unscrupulous element whose leaders are constantly fomenting dissatisfaction largely for the purpose of giving themselves personal publicity. They are the ones who make the big noise, and in the name of organized labor call loudly for shorter hours, higher wages, and decreased production. The penalty for non-compliance with their demands is strikes that will dislocate our economic system and bring suffering to an innocent public. The men who are the most active in such movements are of foreign nativity or extraction, with little regard for our national institutions. A few of them have family responsibilities or wives and children depending upon them for support.

An analysis of organized labor in our industrial and transportation systems will show that by far the greater number of workers are sober, industrious, and law abiding citizens, whose chief concern is to have a steady job at a reasonable wage, and be permitted to live peaceably in the enjoyment of their families. They are usually men who have been a part of their industrial organization for a number of years, and take pride in the growth and prosperity of the concern to which they belong. They have little use for the element who have recently entered the industrial field, and are the leading participants in dissensions over working conditions.

It is to this conservative class of workers that the country must look to rid organized labor of the radical leaders and their deluded followers who seek to pervert the purposes for which unionism was established. The influence of those destructive agencies appears to be on the wane. A few months ago strikes and threatened strikes in all lines of activity were the order of the day. With the retirement from power of the leaders chiefly instrumental in fomenting those disturbances, saner counsel is gaining the upper hand and labor is seeking other methods than destructive strikes to obtain its ends.—Long Beach Telegram.

DEPUTY TAX COLLECTOR

County Supervisor Dodge is offering to have a deputy tax collector spend three days in Glendale the first days of April for the convenience of local property owners who would prefer to pay taxes here instead of making a trip to Los Angeles. The City Hall will be the suitable place for a deputy to do this work, and the trustees will certainly approve of the plan.

GUESTS FROM PITTSBURG

Mrs. C. G. Wood of 1136 East Colorado Street entertained at dinner Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades and Miss Edwards of Pittsburgh, Pa., who are touring California and at present making their headquarters at the Maryland in Pasadena. The table was centered with a basket of pink sweet peas, its base banked with orange blossoms. Pink also dominated other features of the smartly appointed table. It is Mrs. Rhoades' first trip to California and she is so delighted with it she thinks she would like to have a winter home in Los Angeles county. She and her husband will probably be here for a couple of months. Others for whom covers were laid were the two sons of the hostess—William and Charles Wood, Jr.—Mrs. Leonora Miller and Mrs. Woods.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

lived in God—not in a theoretical way. He believed that God is a person. That great truth was manifest in all his life. He had a firm, abiding conviction in the personality of God. George Washington believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. He believed in the personality of Jesus Christ. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. All one real personal God. He also believed that he, himself, was a sinner and the only hope for pardon was in the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ. We don't like to be told that 'all men have sinned and come short.' He said that 'no nation can be truly happy that does not follow the Lord Jesus Christ.' George Washington believed in the church—not theoretically—He was a member of the church. He was regular in attendance; he was an officer in the church, and a good one. George Washington believed in the Bible. The Word of God who is able to turn men unto salvation. He believed it through and through. In these days we play fast and loose with these fundamentals. The mightiest men this world have known have been simple enough to accept this Word of God as it stands. George Washington believed in the sanctity of the Sabbath day. 'Remember the Sabbath day,' you have to give an account of how you use it. We as Christians have come to know this man as a man of prayer. A man of prayer is always a man of power. What George Washington believed in his heart he exemplified in his daily life. Does your life on Monday tally with your profession on Sunday? If you are going to pay honor and tribute to George Washington you must pay honor and tribute to his God. The secret of his life was his faith in the eternal, living God. Will you not say that his God shall be your God forever and ever? May God grant it."

Personals

A force of men are at work grading for the Huntley and Evans subdivision on Kenneth Road.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ayers and family of 315 North Orange Street motored to Hermosa Beach Sunday.

Building permits for the first five days of March aggregated $63,862. The largest amount represented by a permit was $7712.

While Jesse Smith's Ford sedan was parked on Hawthorne Street Saturday evening the motometer and auto club emblem were taken from it.

C. W. Douthart of 320 East Dryden Street has sold his home, also another property which he owns and has purchased property on North Maryland.

Mrs. J. B. Mulvihill of 134 North Louise Street has gone to San Francisco to join her daughter, Flo, who is playing with the Maytime Company at Curran's Theatre.

The many friends of Miss Ethel Worthington of 335 North Maryland are glad to see her out again after being confined to her home for some time with an attack of influenza.

Robert Blackburn of 121 North Cedar Street, formerly with the Flood Control in Glendale, is now working for the Southern California Gas Company as chairman on the surveying corps.

L. W. Chobe, Sanitary Health Officer, who was quarantined at home all last week with a light attack of influenza, is able to be out and at work this morning, though still rather weak.

William Sauter, of 203 North Glendale Avenue, has recently installed an up-to-date bake oven which will be a great help to him in the manufacture of the cookies, etc., which he is making.

H. Venske took out two building permits this forenoon, each in the sum of $3000, one for a five-room bungalow for himself at 437 West Wilson Avenue, and the other for a five-room bungalow of which Archie Thompson is to be owner.

Miss Vivian Engle of 814 East Harvard, who has been confined to her home for the past two weeks of influenza, is able to be out again and will take up her duties as teacher at the La Cresenta school this morning.

Mrs. George C. Hastings of 406 Salem street entertained as Sunday guests her girlhood friend, Miss Susan Russell, and Mrs. Harry Putnam, both of Springfield, Mass. They are having a four months' tour of the west and have been spending several weeks with relatives in Hollywood.

Mrs. Ina M. Randolph of North Jackson Street went to Long Beach last week. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. McGowan, and daughter, Mildred. They expect to spend several days in the beach town visiting Mrs. Randolph's sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. J. Lovell.

The Young People of the Glendale Presbyterian C. E. society took three machine loads of young people to Burbank last Sunday night to attend the Presbyterian C. E. Society there. They received a great inspiration and found a society of about 35 members doing business for Christ and church.

Fred Garrett, formerly of West Elk Street, who has been in the County Hospital with "flu" for the past three weeks, was seen on the streets of Glendale Saturday. He has not fully recovered, however, and will go to his father's ranch near Ukiah, Mendocino county, to recuperate. Prior to his illness Mr. Garrett was employed by the Flood Control.

M. P. Harrison of 505 North Louise Street is the proud possessor of a brand new Velie Six. He has had the car only a few days, but has fully mastered it. Another of our Glendale citizens—Daniel H. Shaw of 1119 East Harvard Street—purchased a car of the same make on the same day, and both of these purchases were made through the Glendale agency, of which J. M. McGrew of 721 East Broadway is the representative.

Miss Carol Willisford was hostess at a pretty four-course dinner Friday evening at her home at 217 North Orange Street, violets and daffodils furnishing a charming centerpiece. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoard, Misses Gladys Anderson, Vera Parner, Pauline Monroe, Dr. Crandall, Dr. Morris, Meredith Waterman and Robert Kolts, and the hostess. The guests remained for a social and musical evening.

Mrs. Oliver Clark of 346 North Louise Street entertained at luncheon and at other times during the past week old friends from the east in the persons of Mrs. Roberts of Columbus, Ohio, and her daughter, Mrs. George Edmonds, of Detroit, Mich., who are stopping at the Alexandria in Los Angeles. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clark motored to Santa Barbara, taking as guests Messrs. Simms and Charles McCann, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Henry and Mr. Henry's sister, Mrs. Brennan.

W. G. Boyd sold the six-room bungalow he started to build for himself, at 130 South Kenwood, to a man from Portland, Ore., who is hurrying him to complete it so he can move to Glendale.

The Misses Ledia and Nancy St. Clair of 1250 South Maryland Avenue attended C. E. and church last evening at the Knox Presbyterian church of Los Angeles. They were formerly members of this church and are always glad to get back whenever it is possible. They sang a duet at the evening service.

Dr. Chas. Russell of Oxford, Kas., who for the past three months had been visiting his brother, Mark Russell, of 1007 South Central Avenue, departed for his home Saturday morning. He will visit old friends en route. Dr. Russell, like others who visit Southern California, is an enthusiast for the climate for this section of the state.

I. B. Martin and daughter, Ruth, who recently came to California from Abilene, Kas., and are staying at Ocean Park, spent Sunday with Rev. C. A. Cole and family. Mr. Martin was a member of Rev. Cole's congregation in Abilene, his first pastorate. The latter is hopeful of inducing his old friend to locate in Glendale, now that he has seen its many beauties.

The retiring executive of the Glendale District C. E. Union entertained the new executive at the home of the retiring president, Ethel Preston, last Saturday evening. After talking over convention history and future anticipations a few games were played. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening. The guests were the Misses Marie Maier, Elizabeth Mottern, Marjorie Smith, Mary and Nancy St. Clair, Nellie Warner, Carol Duncan, and the Messrs. Will Richards, Ray Krug and Joe Maier.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson D. White and little daughter, Helen, returned Saturday morning from an outing of several days in the Coachella valley. The trip was made partly to test the effect of that valley's dry climate on Mrs. White, who is recuperating from a severe asthmatic attack. Mr. White reports it was a happy thought and that the improvement in Mrs. White's condition in the past few days is quite marvelous. Apart from these considerations the two were greatly interested in the valley and the wonderful development taking place there.

NO DECREASE IN LUMBER PRICES

Reports have been current of late that a 25 per cent decrease in prices of lumber and other building material was impending and some prospective builders of new residences have put off their plans in the hope that this may be true. Local dealers emphatically deny that any such thing is possible, desirable as it would be. It was reported that one of the big lumber brokerage firms of Washington State had made the prediction of lower prices. What this firm did say was that there would be no increase in price as far as his company was concerned before July 1, as prices were already from 5 to 25 per cent lower than conditions justified. Our local dealers are hard put to it to get materials enough to supply the demands of builders, according to the Bentley-Schoeneman Company, and so far there is no let-up, but rather an increase in this line.

CLUB HOUSE SITES

MRS. E. W. KINNEY STRONGLY FAVORS PROPERTY OFFERED AT DORAN AND MARYLAND

Mrs. E. W. Kinney of 123 West Elk Street is quarantined on account of the illness of influenza of her little grandchild. It will therefore be impossible for her to attend the regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club which takes place this week at which a vote was to have been taken on proposed sites for a club house. As Mrs. Kinney is chairman of the committee appointed to investigate sites, it is probable the matter will not come up for consideration until the next meeting.

When interviewed upon the subject Mrs. Kinney expressed her strong preference for the lots at the corner of Doran and Maryland Avenue, which have been offered as an even exchange for the two lots owned by the club on Harvard. These have a frontage of 100 feet on Maryland and 137.75 feet on Doran. The club can also purchase an additional fifty feet adjoining, Mrs. Kinney says, which would provide a frontage of 150 feet, which in her judgment it is most desirable to secure. One hundred feet she considers too small a site for the home of a club growing as is this organization, and if its members are so short-sighted as to neglect securing the needed land now, she thinks in a few years they will greatly regret it.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

ever, the matter will probably be discussed from every angle before any action is taken.

Superintendent White states that the contractors are today moving the three rooms on the east of the Broadway building which have been detached from the main structure and that they will be ready for use by pupils tomorrow. In the meantime half-day sessions of the first, second, third and fourth grades are being held to meet the emergency of the day. This course is made necessary by the technicalities of the California law which provides that in every school of two or more grades the same number of days' schooling must be provided for each grade. If, therefore, one grade should be dismissed, the other grades would have to be dismissed also. Replying to the suggestion that the time could be made up by teaching on Saturday, Mr. White stated that the County Counsel has ruled Saturday is a legal school holiday on which no sessions of school can be held. That is the reason the half-day sessions of all the grades were resorted to in meeting the Broadway problem.

Two of the teachers in the city schools were unable to take up their work this morning. One of these is Miss Hatch, principal of the Doran Street School, who has been quite seriously ill of pneumonia. She will probably not be well enough to return to her duties for a month and Miss Helen Hitchcock of Los Angeles will substitute for her. Miss Pawley, the Columbus avenue fourth grade teacher, is recovering from influenza and will not be able to return to her room for two or three days. E. E. Harwood, principal of the Cerritos school, who had influenza in quite a severe form, but who has been out for about ten days, this morning found he was not as strong as he thought and was obliged to take to his bed again, but will probably be restored by a day or two of rest.

THREE BIG THINGS

rifice. He went into the garden and climbed the rugged hill of Calvary. The way He went was rough and strewn with blood. The heavy cross and the piercing crown were necessary to secure for man the crown of life and glory.

"The second word is Neighborliness. By His love and sacrifice Jesus Christ taught the great fact that the whole world is kin. The story of the Good Samaritan is revolutionizing the world. The splendid response of our community to Armenia's need is but an illustration." "The final word," said Dr. Crist, "is Power. The way Christ met and conquered a sinful world speaks of an Almighty Power. This power is communicable. Jesus said to His disciples, 'Ye shall receive power.' The great task before the church is not an impossible one. Our's to know the task, to dare to attempt it in the name of the All Conquering Savior."

Walter Cash of 205 West Lomita Avenue, who badly scalded one foot a few weeks ago by accidentally overturning a pot of boiling water on it, is able to walk about now, though still limping.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS AT "YAGER'S"

"Yager's," at 11 South Brand, is to be greatly enlarged and improved in the next two weeks. W. W. McElroy, owner of the building, is having a 40-foot brick addition built on to the rear of the present structure and Mr. Yager will then remodel the entire interior of the restaurant and confectionery. The kitchen will occupy the rear 12 feet of the addition which will allow the extension of the main department 28 feet further back. A banquet room and several new booths are to be added, the ceiling and walls all re-decorated, new fixtures added and a larger soda fountain installed. Mr. Yager dreds of millions are believers in spiritism in one form or another.

SATAN'S DEVICES

"As Mr. Rampert, English clergyman and psychic expert says in the 'New York Times,' 'All classes of society have been induced to dabble with these mysteries. Among the intellectuals there are thousands of men and women who, after abandoning Christianity, have, in the search for some kind of spiritual life, which is an essential craving of the human heart, plunged into the dark labyrinths of occult science with little knowledge and less discretion. Society women and shop girls, scientists and city clerks, clergymen in large numbers, and young men with a smattering of self-taught culture, are indulging in seances, crystal gazing, table turning, automatic writing, and the invocation of spirits by one means and another, to an extent which is incredible to those who, so far, have not come within this sphere of influence.'

Elder Christian said it is a mistake to suppose modern spiritism to be wholly attributable to fraud and sleight of hand; that while the results of trickery have often been palmed off as genuine manifestations, there have been, also, exhibitions of supernatural power. "Satan is able to produce before men the appearance of their dead friends," said the speaker. "He causes them to see a perfect counterfeit. He reproduces the familiar look, the words and even the tone of the voice with wonderful exactness. Yet the truth is plainly taught in the Scripture that 'the dead know not anything,' as we read in Ecclesiastes 9:5.

"To those who actually believe that the dead communicate with them, Satan causes persons to appear who died unprepared. When they say they are happy in heaven, they strengthen the error that God makes no difference between the righteous and the wicked. When these beings have gained the confidence of men and women, they present doctrines that undermine belief in the Bible. They set aside the law of God, despise the Spirit of His grace, and count the atonement of Christ for the sins of the world an unholy thing. They deny that Christ is God, and make the Creator appear to be the same sort as themselves.

"The definite statement of the Bible as recorded in Deuteronomy 6:4, is, 'The Lord our God is one Lord.' The teaching of spiritualism, as evidenced by an utterance of 'The Banner of Light,' February 3, 1866, is, 'It should be understood that there are as many gods as there are minds needing gods to worship, not only one, two or three, but many.' Again, the Bible declares that 'sin is the transgression of the law,' and 'the soul that sinneth, it shall die.' (1 John 3:4; Ezekiel 18:4). But 'Modern Spiritualism,' chapters 2 and 3 says, Sin, indeed, in the common acceptance of the term, does not really exist.

"The Scripture assures us that 'the law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul,' and that 'by the law is the knowledge of sin.' (Psalms 19:7; Romans 3:20). But spiritualism says 'good men need no law, and laws will do bad and ignorant men no good.'

"Spiritualism is a subtle thing, and the pity of it is that it throws out its fangs and poisons the soul before the individual is aware of it. As Mr. William E. Biederwolf says in his work on this subject, 'The old devil is as cunning as ever, and these demons of his, like angels of light, often disguise the real purpose of their action by a pretended zeal for the truth, even by the reading of the Bible and encouragement to the Christian life; but this is only to gain confidence and a firmer hold on the victim, and back of it all is the sinister motive of enthralling mankind under the dominion of their lord and master, Satan, the arch-enemy of God. The Bible says distinctly that the air which envelops our earth is full of evil spirits, and, if that is so, we can not be surprised at their attempt to communicate with man and to influence him for evil.'

"Satan himself is converted, according to a message recently received from the spirit world, which says he will now lend his efforts to build up the kingdoms of Christ. The truth is, he is not converted, but is the same deceitful, cruel devil.

"Satan can and does perform miracles whenever it suits his purpose, and God permits. He appears to be a benefactor of man, healing their diseases and professing to present a new and exalted system of religious faith. But by his temptations he is ruining multitudes. He delights in war, for he can thus excite the worst passions of the human heart, and then sweep his victims into eternity, unprepared. Furthermore, he seizes upon the ravages of warfare as an open door through which to march his deceptions upon the world. The world today longs for comfort. When a son, husband or father apparently appears in spirit form, how easy to yield to the impulse of accepting this counterfeit as genuine!

"Whether it is the ouija board or the alphabet and revolving pointer, the spiritualistic medium or the apparition, through which communication is had with the unseen, it is dangerous. These may appear innocent, but the only safe course is to leave them untouched. They will destroy your soul. They will bind you in a thralldom from which you may never escape. Christians should withdraw themselves from all these contacts, place their full confidence in the Bible, and maintain personal communion with heaven through the channel of prayer, and may God add the protection of His angels."

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mendelssohn wedding march, and to its strains the bridal party entered the room led by the grandchildren, Leland Frost and Lucian Shaw, Dorothy and Evelyn Shaw, followed by Miss Goss and Mrs. Copeland (sister of Mrs. West), Albert West and Mrs. Rena Barber (brother and sister of Mr. West) Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw, (son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. West) and then the bride and groom. Awaiting them beneath the golden canopy was Rev. William M. Brooks, who officiated at their wedding fifty years ago in Tabor, Ia. Erect, clear-eyed, vigorous, it was difficult to believe that the day previous he had celebrated his 85th birthday. In his hand he held a document, an old-fashioned instrument gaily flowered and embellished with gilt. Inviting Mr. and Mrs. West to be seated, he addressed the company, saying:

"The wedding we celebrate today is of so long standing that at my request the parties are seated," a pun which drew instant response in audible smiles. Continuing, he said:

"I recently heard of a woman who invited twenty of her lady friends to a party at her house and asked each one to bring something for which she had no use but which was too good to throw away, and fifteen of them brought their husbands. Mr. West was not one of the fifteen.

"I hold in my hands a document that is of use and yet the parties on account of whom we are gathered here today would not care to throw it away. A great many interesting things might be said of it, but what is its property value? It is a marriage license and it authorized me to join in marriage Henry S. West and Nina Jones. It is dated February 22, 1870, and a few days after that the marriage was duly celebrated. Marriage, though held very lightly by some in these days of easy divorce, is a sacred thing. It is the foundation of civilized society. Fifty years ago Henry S. West and Nina Jones taking each other by the right hand, promised to love each other. For fifty years they have kept those solemn vows. It is not necessary today to ask them to renew those promises, for the past is a guarantee of the future. It is not necessary that under the laws of the commonwealth of Iowa or of California they should again be pronounced husband and wife, for besides children and grand children who love them, there is a great multitude of friends who have found their home almost ideal home and who hold them in tender affection. They have lived these fifty years a happy life because they have been extreme in their optimism. I am very sure they would join in that song I heard a congregation sing many years ago: 'It is better farther on.' They would indorse, I know, that sentiment of Browning's 'Rabbi Ben Ezra':

Grow old along with me,
The best of life is yet to be.
The last of life for which the first was made;
Our times are in His hand.
Who saith, 'A whole I planned.
'Youth shows but half; trust God:
See all nor be afraid.'

As well as those lines of Whit-tier's:
I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.
And so, beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar,
No harm can come from Him to me
On ocean or on shore.
I know not where His islands lift
Their fringed palms in air.
I only know I can not drift
Beyond His love and care.

"It is because faith and hope and love have been in their hearts that they have been able to live these fifty beautiful years, and they have been kept in peace because they trusted God."

In response to the request of Rev. Brooks, Dr. E. H. Willisford offered a prayer of thanksgiving for the beautiful married life of Mr. and Mrs. West, and a petition that their sunset years might be filled with blessings.

After Mr. and Mrs. West had received the congratulations of relatives and friends, Mrs. Mary Milligan, president of the Woman's Relief Corps of the N. P. Banks Post, presented to Mr. and Mrs. West two very beautiful cups and saucers, beautifully decorated and gold rimmed as a souvenir of the day and tribute of regard.

The company was also treated to a little surprise when she asked Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Maxwell to step forward and to Mrs. Maxwell presented a very beautifully decorated china plate with the announcement that the company that thirty-six years ago in Johnson County, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell had been united in marriage.

The honorees had been showered with flowers and gifts which were inspected with interest by guests, as well as the large and handsome wedding cake covered with a thick white frosting decorated with garlands of yellow roses and birds. Presently the cake was cut and served with a delicious ice cream in which the same color scheme was carried out, and after the refreshments had been cleared away the guests assembled out of doors where several photographs of the group were taken to serve as permanent souvenirs of a very delightful occasion. The group included besides the wedding party already enumerated: Comrade and Mrs. C. R. Norton, Commander Tom Barrett, Mrs. Dolan, Comrade Lathrop, Comrade Thayer, Comrade and Mrs. Denney, Mrs. Hapgood, Mrs. Augustus, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford, Mrs. Haskell, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. E. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Phillips, Comrade and Mrs. Scudder, Mrs. Houdyshe, Mrs. Burlingham, Mrs. La Rowe, Comrade Sauer, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis.

In connection with an event so unusual it is of interest to know some of the details of the lives of these two who have been so happily united for fifty years. It appears that at Windham, Ohio, on the 5th day of January, 1840, Henry S. West was born. Five years later his parents and family moved westward to Waukesha County, Wis. Before the beginning of the Civil War he had gone still further to southwestern Iowa and in 1862 he offered himself in the service of his country, enlisting in B Company, 29th Regiment of Iowa Infantry. The fortunes of war carried him first to St. Louis and on the 4th of July, 1863, he was in the big battle of Helena, Arkansas. On Steele's retreat from Camden another big battle was fought at Jenkins' Ferry, where he was wounded and captured by the enemy and finally taken to a Confederate prison near the present site of Fort Worth, Texas. The part of a year spent there reduced him from a strong man weighing 150 pounds to a skeleton of less than 75 pounds. When the parole came to him February 25, 1865, he and three comrades thought the date worthy of being commemorated and agreed that when their wedding day should arrive, that should be the date chosen. So, while still serving Uncle Sam in the mail service, the wedding with Nina Jones occurred in Tabor, February 25, 1870. Many years were spent by Mr. and Mrs. West in their chosen vocation of agriculture in Iowa and Nebraska, but the toll exacted by the war was so heavy that in 1885 they moved to Los Angeles, having been informed that California alone would save him from speedy death.

Stops Medicine— Health Recovered by Internal Baths

Mr. A. Czarnecki, 657 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal., writes Tyrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"I must admit that the use of the 'J. B. L. Cascade' has cured chronic constipation from which I suffered. Since May 12, 1913, I have never even tasted any kind of patent medicine or purgative. My health is excellent in every respect."

Over half a million bright, keen, intelligent Americans have found that internal bathing is more essential to their health than external baths—

Have found that used occasionally at night they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous feeling, but having by nature's own cleanser—antiseptic warm water—removed all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting properly, clear headed, happy and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

Why not learn more about this rapidly growing and natural practice? The "J. B. L. Cascade" is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrell, M. D., of New York, a specialist on internal baths for 25 years, and is now being shown and explained by Roberts & Echols in Glendale, who will give you—free on request—an interesting booklet on the subject called "Why Man of To-day Is Only 50% Efficient."
